“He stopped abruptly, his eyes bulging in a terrified stare as Mr. Morrison climbed down from the wagon. Mr. Morrison’s long shadow fell over him and for a breathless second, Mr. Morrison towered dangerously near him. But as the fear grew white on Kaleb Wallace’s face, Mr. Morrison turned without a word and peered into the truck.” (Pg. 225)	eyes bulging/ terrified stare/ long shadow/ towered dangerously near/ white	breathless/ without a word				fear, anticipation
“Slowly, his muscles flexing tightly against his thin shirt and the sweat popping off his skin like oil on water, he lifted the truck in one fluid, powerful motion until the front was several inches off the ground and slowly walked it to the left of the road, where he set it down as gently as a sleeping child.” (Pg. 225)
“August dawned blue and hot. The heat swooped low over the land clinging like an invisible shroud, and through it people moved slowly, lethargically, as if under water.” (Pg. 227)
“Several feet away the persistent sun made amber roads of shimmering sunlight upon the pond. A stillness hovered in the high air, soft, quiet, peaceful.” (Pg. 229)
“...the mass of humanity which had squished its way into the sweltering interior of the small church poured onto the school grounds...” (Pg. 234)
